

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

As spring is upon us, we say goodbye to the cold temps of the winter and hello to chirping birds, flowers sprouting, and longer days. In our home, we put away the hockey skates and pull out the soccer cleats. It is almost like a changing of the guard. Nothing slows down, it just changes to something different.

The first few months of the year are always busy for us as we create our Spring Issue, work on the Home Show, and the hustle and bustle of school and sports. We wouldn't change it for the world, but a weekend with nothing planned is always a welcome treat!

As many have done, we hope to have travel plans this summer. With our passion for new adventures, historical sites, and national parks, our plans are set toward a lengthy road trip to explore new States. But that won't hold us back from working on projects around the house and yard. Last fall we completed a large patio and I'm looking forward to adding some soft landscape to the edge this year. Watch for the story in our Fall Issue!
